Location and Advantage:-

Plymouth, England

A university of the city

They have two campuses and 30 buildings. We also have big plans for the future.

We're very proud of our campuses. Not only because they provide a modern and inspiring learning space for all of our students but also because they're a place people really want to be.

Our campuses are a bustling hive of activity. People will be studying, chatting over a coffee, relaxing with friends or taking part in one of our events. You'll see friendly debates between academics, people talking to our student reps and study groups working on joint projects.

We have impressive plans for our campuses; plans that will benefit not only our students and staff, but also people living, working or visiting Liverpool. It's an exciting time.
