

Profile Details

Ritesh Kaushik:

Ritesh is a maritime lawyer, marine engineer and techno-legal expert for shipping casualties and associated claims. He has over 25 years of experience in shipping industry and has acquired specialist knowledge in International Maritime Law along with English and Indian Law. He is currently a partner in his family law firm Kaushik & Associates, India where he heads the shipping division since early 2019. Ritesh has provided his consultancy services as techno-legal expert in mediation proceedings and early intervention proceedings in shipping disputes to shipping claims and recovery firm W.E. Cox, London since early 2019. He has gained experience in Hull & Machinery Claims during his tenure as consultant with Edge Brokers, London. He completed his Masters of Law from University of Southampton

